To the Students
Presbyterian College

My Fellow Students:

As you read these words today and in the coming years, I sincerely hope that they will recall memories of the year 1963-1964. In this book, you will find the photos and pictures of you and your friends. May the casual perusal of today, and the careful reading of tomorrow bring fond recollections of your year at P.C.

The 1964 PaC SaC staff has worked long and hard to assure the publication of a book of which you can be proud to show your friends. It has been a difficult task, but the task is over. It has been a long, tiresome road, but the journey is over.

It is with genuine pleasure that I, speaking on behalf of the entire staff, present to you, the 1964 PaC SaC.

Sincerely yours,

Leon

He is the professor who by his teaching and by his personal life affects the lives of all his students . . . he is a friend who despite his busy schedule, takes time to have a bright smile and a friendly word, with genuine concern for each of us . . . he is the administrator who accepts the responsibilities of his position and works for the good of both the college and the students . . . he is the man we respectfully call Dr. Joe. To Dr. Joseph Miller Gettys, for the influence on our lives in the brief time we are together at P.C., we dedicate the 1964 PaC SaC, with kindest regards and deepest gratitude.

FOOTBALL

Optimism for the coming years prevailed as the Presbyterian College Blue Hose closed the 1963 football season. Convincing victories over Troy State and Newberry at the season's end left no doubt that football fortunes are on the upswing.

The Hose, playing probably the toughest small college schedule in the South, finished with a 3-6-1 record. East Carolina, Furman, the Citadel, Tampa, Lenoir Rhyne and Wofford each dealt the Hose defeats. Frederick, Troy State and Newberry were victims of the Hose; Davidson stopped several Hose drives deep in their own territory to manage a 14-14 tie.

men Buffalo Richardson and Pat Suddeth led an aggressive tough rushing defense. Senior kicking-specialist Louis Ridinger seldom missed the PAT attempts and averaged nearly 40 yards per punt. Bill Tyson, senior quarterback, was outstanding on both offense and defense.

Tribute must be paid to Head Coach Cally Gault and his assistants, Tiller, Vickers, Musselman and Ross, for the outstanding job they did. Coach Gault in his first year as head coach at his alma mater instilled a new pride and confidence in the team. These are among the ingredients for a winner. Coach Gault is looking to next year with the hopes of finding the long awaited winner.

BASKETBALL

Coach Art Musselman

Characterized by a trademark of running, running, and running, the 1963-64 Basketeers overcame the lack of experience which had threatened to plague them all season. New coach, Art Musselman, faced a man-power shortage, made even worse later in the season by injuries to key players. However, his enthusiasm was infectious and the team caught fire in mid-season. After losing seven of the first eight games, the Hose found themselves and went on to a 7 win - 13 loss season. The season had its high point when the Hose twice broke the century mark, scoring 102 points in a home victory against Georgia State on Friday night, and then scoring 102 points to defeat Pembroke on Saturday night. Senior Captain Andy Karlsons closed out his four-year career with a total of 1260 points for a 14.9 pts. per game average over the four years. Karlsons' running mate, a guard, was a quick sure-shot, sophomore. Gordon Adam, who averaged over 13 points per game for the season. Teamed with the high scorers were Doug Allen and Jimmy Bankhead at forward, and Danny Charles at Center. Charles was the team leader in field goal accuracy and in free throw accuracy. Things look bright for next year with eight returning lettermen; aside from those already mentioned, with the exception of Karlsons, Coach Musselman will have John Etchison, sixth man, Bill Tallent, Jimmy Wooten and Billy Petty back to form the backbone of a squad reinforced by his recruiting program.

TENNIS

Co-Captains Tyson and Frederick with Coach Warden.

Facing the usual difficult schedule including many of the nation's tennis powers, Coach Gordon Warden also faces the task of replacing the lost number one; returning lettermen Harris, Letzring, Tyson and Frederick are joined by newcomers Pete Collins and Bill Gillespie. Senior Co-Captains Tyson and Frederick hope to lead this year's team to the state tournament here in Clinton and return the state tennis crown to Presbyterian. Warm-up matches with Miami, Duke, Harvard and others will prepare the team for the duel with Clemson and the Citadel for the title.

BASEBALL

The 1964 baseball outlook is bright due to the returning lettermen from last years' Little Four Champion team. Under Coach Billy Tiller, the baseball fortunes of Presbyterian College have been greatly improved in the last two years, and all things point to another winning year.

GOLF

With the loss of Ken Acker, the Golf team faces the task of replacing its number one for the second straight year. Coach Gordon Warden looks to returning lettermen Bill Kellam, Moose Brown, Bunky Hanks, Jack Westall and Mike Smith, to form the nucleus of his team. These golfers are joined by Larry Preston and Bruce Lawrence, both of whom are capable golfers, and the outlook for the season is optimistic.

TRACK

Despite a shortage of returning lettermen, Coach Jimmy Vickers' track team should do well this year. Sprinter Hagood and hurdler Galloway were lost with pre-season injuries, but the cindermen are still strong in several field and running events and should prove tough in the meets ahead.

INTRAMURALS

The intramural sports program of Presbyterian College has to rank among the best in any college in the South regardless of size. The administration realizes the importance of such a program, and little expense is spared to provide the best possible program for the students. It has been estimated that over 80 per cent of the student body participates in at least one intramural sport sometime during the year, and many participate in many more than one sport. The program is set up under the auspices of the SCA, under the direction of Coach Gordon Warden, and the able leadership of student chairman Don Warlick. Sports of the year were: FOOTBALL—won by the Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity in a play-off.

BASKETBALL—won by the Pi Kappa Alphas.

POOL—Pounders.
